“ I also worked with Kay for many years and am so sorry to hear of her passing. Kay was intelligent and resourceful and she always impressed me with her dedication and dependability, despite her struggles with many health issues. I hope she is now enjoying a sweet reunion with her beloved parents and Trevor Dog. She will be missed.

“ Kay Kay, is what I called her. We worked together for years before she retired. Countless moments and times we shared. But I will never forget and we always laughed about us riding from Marietta after a funeral back to Dunwoody and almost eating whole dozen of Krispy Creme doughnuts. Rest well my friend. To Kay's family and friends, you have my sincerest condolences. Shannah

Kay was one of only two people in the world that I would gladly give a kidney! She and I were coworkers first and then long-time great friends. We shared a love of art, food, music, travel, books, family, friends, and animals (not necessarily in that order). One of our vacations together was a trip we won to the Bahamas, where we learned 3 things: the tip is added whether you get service or not; always take a beverage, a chair, and a book because no taxi or bus is ever on time; and don't let the unlicensed stylist do your braids! She was so soft-spoken that most people didn't know she had a beautiful soprano voice. I loved hearing her sing along to her favorites - Marvin Gaye, Rod Stewart, Rolling Stones, and many others. Many years, many stories, many pictures, which I will gladly share. My heart aches that she is gone, but I am happy that her suffering is over.
