“ Thank you Matsha for being such an awesome co-worker and friend. You were always so kind and so smart. Also you were so incredibly talented. The skits you helped write were one of the things that made Lawrenceville one of my favorite places to work. Thank You my friend for just being Marsha. You so deserve everlasting peace and happiness. Much Love, Maureen Young

“ I met Sherry in middle school. I loved hanging out with her. Any time we needed a ride to a football game, the movies or anywhere, she had the "coolest older sister" who would give us a ride. Marsha and I soon became friends and then me, Sherry, Marsh and Rosie all hung out together. I have some great memories of Marsha.

My sincere condolences to the family.

*Love and prayers,
