“ Marshall was truly a one-of-a-kind; such a gentle spirit and all-around great guy. I worked for years with Marshall over the phone from NICB HQ. He was always willing to teach you something new and always had a joke to lighten your spirit. He will be missed! My condolences to the family. My God bless you and uplift you in this time of sorrow.###imported-begin###Deb Swedo (NICB)###imported-end##

“ I remember you as an ace auto theft investigator for many years then with your time with NICB until your retirement. You were a tremendous asset wherever you were assigned and a very loyal employee. You will be sorely missed by many but especially by me as your manager. I will never forget you old friend. May you rest in peace.

“ I will miss you Marshall. You were a friend, partner, and mentor. You taught me so much in auto theft. I wish I could retain a 1/32nd of the Cvin info you had in the hard drive in your brain. We had many good times, and I will miss our Thursday rides to the retirement luncheon. Many good times talked about.
You rest in peace my friend and I will see you again someday.

“ Marshall was one of the remaining few, true auto guys NICB had. He was always willing to help fellow agents to identify just about anything imaginable. We knew his expertise would be missed when he retired. His kind assistance will be missed and never replaced. RIP Marshall.

“ Marshall will be missed. Without him I never would have made it through as an Auto Theft Investigator. I enjoyed the IAATTI conferences and training classes in GIATTI that he was a part of. I will never forget the road trip in Mobile to the “threwed rolls” restaurant.
