In Loving Memory of Martha Ann Coker

“Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her.” – Proverbs 31:28

It is with hearts full of love and cherished memories that we prepare to celebrate the life and legacy of a remarkable woman—a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and servant of the Lord. Martha Ann Coker, beloved matriarch of our family, peacefully entered into eternal rest on April 23, 2025, embraced by the grace and promises of her Savior.

Born into the loving arms of the late Henry Lamar Mathis and Dora Vinette Mathis, Martha was a radiant light from the very beginning. Rooted in faith, her life was a living testimony of Christ’s love—marked by unwavering devotion to her family, a generous heart, and a spirit of selfless service.

A true Proverbs 31 woman, she was a nurturer in every sense—always placing the needs of her loved ones before her own. Her kitchen was a sanctuary of warmth, filled with the aroma of lovingly prepared meals. Baking and cooking were more than tasks; they were expressions of her deep care and affection.

She was a faithful and loving wife to her husband, John Coker, and the devoted mother of Brandon Mathis and Paige Dean, the cherished wife of Michael Dean. Her legacy of love lives on in the laughter and lives of her adored grandchildren—Landyn Dean, Carson Davis, and Kadence Dean — who were the very pride and joy of her heart. To them, she was “Gigi,” a title she will forever wear with joy, grace, and boundless affection.

Her love reached beyond the bounds of her home. As a sister to Mary Tate and Sara Teets, she was a constant support, a gentle listener, and a prayerful presence. Her generosity knew no limits, and her heart knew no strangers. A faithful traveler and lover of God’s creation, she found joy in the beauty of the world around her—capturing precious memories in photographs, always seeing through the lens of gratitude.

Though our hearts ache in her absence, we rejoice in the assurance that she is now in the presence of her Lord—whole, at peace, and rejoicing with those who have gone before her. We take comfort in knowing that she is reunited with her beloved parents, Henry and Dora Mathis, and rests in the arms of everlasting love.

Her life was a gift to all who knew her. Her memory will be a treasure, her legacy a guiding light. Her faith, fierce and unshakable, continues to echo in our hearts as we honor her, miss her, and hold fast to the blessed hope of reunion.

“Well done, good and faithful servant... enter into the joy of your Lord.” –
Matthew 25:21

“ Martha was a sweet soul and a special friend. I cherish the Friendship and the memories we shared in Elementary school and although life took us on different paths, I'm glad I got to see her a couple of months ago and bring back those childhood memories. I'm heartbroken for her family as I know it will leave a major void in their lives. Praying for all of you that God will give you peace and comfort in reflecting on all those special memories you have shared through the years. ~Holly (LHS Class of 1985)

“ I didn't know Martha but I am friends of Paige and Michael. I feel like we were kindred spirits from reading this beautiful eulogy. God bless you all as you go forward in living for God's Glory just the way she did.

With love and prayers, Nancy Griffin
