“ *None of us lives for himself [for his own benefit, but for the Lord], and none of us dies for himself [but for the Lord]. If we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. So then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For Christ died and lived again for this reason, that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Martha when Julian came to kindergarten. I got to spend another precious year with the family teaching River too. I was inspired by her faith and her memory will forever live on in those beautiful children. She was a beautiful lady inside and out. I am so honored to have known her. I am sending prayers to all.
