“ Miss Martha was such a sweetheart. She always had a smile on her face and she never failed to ask about me or my family and how we all were. She never talked about herself or complained about how she was feeling. She had a great laugh and loved to cut up with me. I called her Momma because she made me feel that loved by her. She thought my husband Tony looked like Tom Selleck and always told him so which made him feel good. She just had a way of making you feel good around her. We are going to miss Miss Martha so much but I know she is in Heaven now rejoicing with our Lord Jesus and being reunited with her beloved husband and other family members.

“ I love you mommy. I miss you. I know you are so happy, dancing with daddy and being with Jesus. I can visualize seeing you as you have a joyful reunion with nanny and all your sisters and brothers. I will see you some day.
