“ We loved Mrs. Jones so much. She truly was a blessing to us all at New London. I remember how great her mind was. She still remembered me after not even seeing me for three years. That was remarkable. She will be greatly missed. I know one day we will meet again.##imported-begin##Drew McKinney##imported-end##

“ From the moment I met her, she was my "Nana" too. I know it's a cliché, but when she smiled, it truly lit up her whole face. She was a fun, loving, sweet woman and I'm thankful she was part of my life and my girls' "Great-Nana."
