“ Marvin was a beautiful person, even from a young age. I'll never forget writing poetry and sharing it with each other in the 7th grade. He loved John Denver and dreamed of living in Colorado one day. He had a beautiful heart. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Tori, you were a lucky woman.

“ Edna, Willard, there are no words. I'm truly sorry for you loss. Marty and I went to school and church together when he was going to Simonton. He was special to me . I pray that he has peace now and no longer in pain. I know I will see him again. He is in heaven singing with his wonderful voice. I will truly miss him.
