“Wow, I was really in shock and saddened hearing on the passing of Marty!
You know my memories go back to Central Gwinnett as a freshman starting high School, kind of getting to know Marty a little bit in helping out with the football team! You know I was totally amazed at this larger than Life, good looking, Jock who seem so kind, friendly, really genuine to everyone which absolutely called every girl to crush on!

Remembering, which I think I still have this newspaper clipping of a youth group held in those days & who was in front on that picture in the paper with all smiles.....Mr "Marty Parr"! I remember thinking how cool, this popular football player not ever to shy away on his love for the Lord!

I also think back, learning my husband also had a Marty Parr story, everyone I've met that had known him as a friend or acquaintance has the same sentiments "Such a good and friendly guy, someone you know that lives, loves his Lord, family and friends"!

So to the Parr family.....Our Thoughts and Prayers cover you during this difficult time of loss of fellowship in this season that y'all are walking out. The Legacy Marty has left with/in each of you will be seen remembered by many, I fully believe! 🌈

Remembering Marty, thoughts and prayers go out each of you!
