“ My fondest memory with Marty ,was simple. He was an amazing Father, and he showed it every time I ever saw him with his 3 Daughters. Unfortunately I never got to see him with his grand children, but I still know that he was just the very same way with them all. Marty was a good man, respectable person, in my eyes. Genuine, and always seemed happy. You will definitely be missed, just as much as you were loved. Rest in peace my friend.
