“ We are sad to hear of Marvin's death, but know that he is now in the arms of Jesus and reveling in the joys of Heaven. I am Marvin's cousin (my mother Marietta and Marvin's mother Beulah were sisters). I didn't know him well, but enjoyed spending some time with him at a cousins' reunion at the Lake of the Ozarks a few years ago. And we both read his book and marvel at his strength and bravery. Our hearts are with you.

Blessings, Clara Jane (Jan) and Jerry Halverson, Lakewood, WA

“Marvin you touched my life in a very special way! I have missed sitting beside you at church and seeing your face light up as we talked and joked with each other. I will never forget how you "had" to sit next to me for lunch at Southern Plantation. You are a dear sweet man and I am a better person in knowing you. You are a true patriot, a hero and I thank you for your service to Our country! I will miss and I was blessed and honored to call you my friend. Keep a seat for me until we meet again in God's Glorious Kingdom!

“Marvin was a good friend. My mother worked with him on the writing of his biography. They became very good friends and made each other smile, laugh and carry on. I miss them both. Marvin's life truly was "A Life Anything But Ordinary".
