“ We will truly miss Mrs. Mary. She has always been a blessing to Josh’s family as well as my own, The Hardeman’s. I have very fond memories of them opening their home to us after revival meetings! Bill and Mary even let my sister and I follow them many times to camp meeting when we were “young driver’s” and dad didn’t feel comfortable with us traveling from GA to NC alone. I always looked forward to her Chex Mix! She would always make Barb and Steve some when they came up for Camp Meeting and then when I married Josh I got to be included in that “blessing”. We are thankful that Mary knew the Lord and that she is present with Him. Her mind has been healed and she’s worshipping the One she loved and worshiped down here. We are praying for the family and especially for Bro. Bill. We love you.
