

Mary Baker Culwell

July 5, 1942 - October 11, 2023

Mary Baker Culwell was born on July 5, 1942 in Atlanta, Georgia, the daughter of Corine Jaillet Baker and Dr. William Roosevelt Baker. She attended Christ the King Elementary School, St. Pius X High School, and she graduated from Emory University. Mary worked in banking and finance all her life, first at First National Bank and then at Wachovia where she was a Senior Vice President at her retirement. She married Peter L. Culwell in 1968, and the couple lived first in Marietta and then in Monroe.

Mary is predeceased by her beloved husband, her parents, her nephew, Henry Barnes, and her sister, Jane Barnes. She is survived by her sister, Joan MacIntosh, and her Hawkinsville siblings Deborah Ricks (Ray) and Nancy Moughon (Jay), and William Baker (Patsy), nephews Stan Macintosh and Francis Barnes III (Theodora), nieces Julia Barnes (Tom) and Mary Katherine Barnes, great nephews Riley Macintosh, Alex Barnes, and Daniel Barnes, and great niece Katy Jane Bavis. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Felicia Bolden (Ron) and many cousins and other family members.

Mary loved visiting friends and family, keeping in touch by the phone with other friends and family, and playing mahjong with her church friends. She cherished the friendships that she and Pete made, spending winters in Florida, as well as friendships from elementary school, high school, college, the neighborhood, church, and her banking career.

Services will be Saturday, October 21st at 11:30 at Holy Cross Anglican Church, 3836 Oak Grove Road SW, Loganville, Georgia 30052. In lieu of
