“ I'll never forget the first time I met Mary, Michael, Stephanie and Nicholas. Mary, the classy hostess with the mostess. So welcoming, when you came to her home. So easy to talk to. So beautiful and well dressed. Just a beautiful person outside and in. I enjoyed knowing her for many years. Her and Michael's love, open and pure. She will be missed as a wonderful neighbor and mother. However, that pretty smile and joy she carried with her will be in our hearts forever. Many prayers to her whole family. May God remove the tears and replace them with smiles as you cherish her memory. This will get better. Much love to all of you. Th Staubs.

My cousin and I had many great times together, she would have you in stitches, she will be greatly missed. I know she is with our family having a great time, she is going to be surprised to see Joe (who passed 1yr ago in the 8th) she is now in the arms of the Lord and his Angels. Sincere sympathy for you and your family love Bobby and Bonnie
