“ We love Mary so much and know we will be with her again one day! Mary was one of the strongest and most giving persons I've ever known. She always tried to help everyone including animals. She was a blessing. Mary fought one heck of a hard fight and never gave up! God Bless Her! God had a great day to bring her home to share Jesus' birthday. She will be missed and never forgotten! We love you Sis!

I'm going to miss you Mary, but I will see you again and it will be amazing. I can honestly say that I have never met a more strong, hard working, caring and determined woman as you. You have always inspired me and I'm sure you inspired many others. Hurt no more my sweet friend. I love you Mary.

My Cuz...I affectionately called her...I feel like a piece of me is gone. My soul is overwhelmed with all the memories from child and adulthood....anyone that had the blessings of being around her was truly in the presence of greatness....her determination with all she suffered through since she was a teenager with health challenges has truly been beyond amazing. She defied all the odds and when I thought I was having a bad day...I would just stop and think about all she has endured...she had courage and strength totally beyond measure...and she fulfilled all she set out to do in this world...she would have set more goals to accomplish but she knew her time here on earth was going to be cut short and in this time here on earth she lived it to the full....Cuz you will be deeply missed and I will miss more than anything those awesome belly laughs that only you and I shared. You will no longer have the chronic "fatigue" we laughed about oh so many times....(this was a joke between us) God blessed me with an amazing inspirational cousin and I will cherish and never forget all our times together and especially the long summers we spent on our farm riding horses and camping out in the yard...LOL I love you Mary Ellen xoxox I will see you one day again because I know praise God exactly where you are...and I'm so thankful so until then just know I love you dearly and you will be greatly missed...but I could not be happier for your graduation to Heaven. Rest in sweet and beautiful peace.
