“ Mary Ann, also known as my other mom, was one of the most genuine, honest, truly good people I have had the pleasure of having in my life. She will be missed greatly but always remembered fondly. We have lost one of the few deep down good people in this world but she will never be forgotten in our hearts.

“ I met Mary Ann whilst volunteering at the Mercy Clinic in Athens, we enjoyed our time there and it turned out we enjoyed Valerie working there also, they were very good friends, had some great times going to lunch and as Mary Ann loved Christmas you couldn't help but be happy, she will be missed a lot.
My heart goes out to Tom and family.

“ I was a brand new graduate RN when I met Mary Ann. I was in Gwinnett's first nursing internship program and spent time on all of the nursing areas and worked all of the shifts. One evening I had worked 3-11 on the cardiac unit. My preceptor was not very good with newbies. It was a grueling evening, I felt like I couldn't keep up. I was finally going home around 1 a.m. I was in the stairwell, crying as I walked down the many stairs when Mary Ann came upon me. Without even asking me what was wrong, she opened her arms and hugged me. She took a Kleenex and wiped my face and gave me another to blow my nose. We talked for a long time. Her kindness and encouragement set me right. She was a woman to admire. She will be missed by so many.
