“ I always have fond memories of Aunt Mary, like how deeply she loved my Uncle Junior, her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and still had so much love to share. She was a beautiful light, with her strong faith in God and sweet disposition. She will be missed deeply.
Our thoughts and prayers are with our uncle and cousins during their time of grief💕
Love,
Natalie O'Conner and family

Mary was my long time friend.I loved her so much.Always wanted her and James to live in Arkansas.To be close that is how we all started out.At Southwest Assembly of God Church all our familys.Those are my memories.She was a wonderful lady and a fun loving person.I will miss her presence on this earth.But she ran her race and now she is with our Heavenly father and all Gods host of saints waiting on us.My heart is sad today Mary but will see you again.Love you always.😊❤️
