“ Ms. Frances was the very first person I met when we visited Chestnut Grove for the first time. She always had a smile and a kind word and she loved to laugh. We became instant friends because of that and her love for her church was infectious. She is already missed but knowing she is "going home" makes me smile. Many prayers have been prayed for her and will continue for her sweet family. We have lost a dear friend and Heaven has gained one. Welcome Home, Ms. Frances. Pam Brooks
