“ I have such fond memories as a child visiting Aunt Mary Lee and Uncle Harold and my cousins. It was an exciting adventure back then to get to go out of town and stay with them. I will always treasure those times...she was a great cook....she had such a pleasant nature ---her voice was always sweet and her beautiful smile made me always feel very special. She is now sharing that smile with the angels. My deepest sympathy to the family. Brenda Oliver Hubbard
