“ I received a Facebook message from a childhood friend about Mrs. Kelly's passing. I knew her from Eastland Hgts. Baptist Church in the late 50s and 60s. She was my Sunday school teacher and GA leader. I remember vividly going to her house for GA meetings. She was such an inspiration to me and played such a large part in teaching me the Christian beliefs I have now. Every child always remembers a favorite school teacher - well, I have always remembered my Sunday school teacher, Mrs. Kelly. I'm sure heaven is sweeter now that she is there. I am so grateful I was a student of hers.

Prayers to all of her family.
