“ Every time I think of Mary, I get a lump in my throat. It seems surreal that she is gone. She is greatly missed. To Fred and family...each time I think of her, I pray for you all. May God comfort you and help you deal with the emptiness I know that you are feeling. She was a strong, genuine, and very sweet woman that will continue to live on in memory. Blessings to you all.##imported-begin##Edgar & Vickie Fussell##imported-end##

“ In My Pocket

I have memories in my pockets they rattle among the change.

My memories of you are treasured I carry where I go.

They are stored in bits and pieces, parts of a beautiful whole. They give me comfort when I think I am alone.

Yes I have memories in my pocket, like so much other stuff I keep there.

But of all the treasures I have its the memories of you that are the most precious.##imported-begin##Fred##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May reading these scriptures be of encouragement to you. Isaiah 33:24, and 25:8, tell us that the God of Love will bring an end to sickness and death. Jesus Christ while here on earth, spoke about the resurrection hope. That means that we will have the opportunity to see our loved ones again. Where will these blessings take place? Please read Psalms 37:10, 11, 29, and 72:7,8, to receive the answer. I hope that this letter and the scriptures within, will give you and your loved ones some comfort and assured hope.
