“ We pray for your strength as you go through this time of bereavement. May you keep the faith and know that God is always with you.

Mary was very special to us. We love her.

We still have the little yellow dress that she made for my daughter and the reindeer she made for my son.

Love,

“ Dear Jerry & Children: The loss of your beloved Mary / your Mother is a great loss to you and to the many people who also loved Mary as a friend. Mary was truly the most caring, giving, creative, and virtuous person and all of us at Phillips S.P. loved and adored her. My house has so many rooms with the beautiful art Mary made for me...it hurts me right now to see these beautiful things and think of missing her so much, but thank God for our certainty that we will one day see her again. My deepest sympathy and heartfelt prayers to you all. In His Love, Sheree Gravenhorst##imported-begin##Sheree P. Gravenhorst##imported-end##

“ Jerry Fibo was one of a kind she was someone special. In high school she could always make you laugh when you were down and out.

Our loss in this life is God's gain. Remember she is at peace now and she is making a place for you and her family to come and be with her and God. Fibo may have left this earth but she will never be forgotten.

God bless you and the family##imported-begin##Bobby Sigman##imported-end##

“ Jerry and Family, Mary was a very “Special” person to so many people and especially to her Family. She was such a vivacious person – so full of energy. When she walked into a room, it would come to life. She possessed so many talents. She will be missed by all. Our loss is Heaven's gain (she probably already has them laughing). May you feel God's peace and comfort in the days, months and years ahead. We will continue to keep you in our prayers.##imported-begin##Joyce Britt Harrison##imported-end##
