“ I only met Julian a few times but each time was very memorable for me. He was truly a unique individual and had I known my father who died when I was a very young age I'd wished him to be like Julian showing unconditional love for his family and especially my friend his son Joe. My fondest memories was sitting up late with him one night and watching the Braves play. One of the rare times in my life I felt like I had a family. He was like that and I'll never forget it. My condolences to the family. He will truly be missed. All my love goes out to the family.

“ Mr. Adams was certainly an important part of many of my younger years. As Joe and I went through our high school years our antics could have worn out the best of men, but Mr. Adams would laugh and lightly scold us! Luckily he never knew how bad we really were!

Mr. Adams came to be called affectionately "JuJu" by me. It made him giggle whenever he heard it! I always felt as though he were someone I could always rely upon and that would always be there for me.

I am so saddened by JuJu's passing but take comfort in knowing he was such a good, loving, and caring man who has a certain place in heaven. He will be missed.

I love you all....Deanna###imported-begin##Deanna Radford (Spanberger)###imported-end##
