“ My sweet sweet cousins, Aunt Mattie was like a second mom to me and I am so honored to have a granddaughter named after her and my mom. Loved her so much!! She always had such a loving smile and a big heart. We need to stay in touch as our moms would want that!! Love you all so much.

“ Dearest Wyrick Family,

I want to offer my respect and deepest sympathy to your family. Mattie was a beautiful person. She was very nice and a warm person to be around. I was just a little girl when I remember meeting her with my mom and brother Jamey.

"Those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on, cherished memories never fade, because one loved is gone, those we loved can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there's memory they live on in our heart."

*With Deep Sympathy, Ashley Westmoreland

I am so sorry to hear about Mattie. Haven't seen her in years but saw quite a bit when she lived in Lawrenceville and I lived in a few blocks over. I am thinking of the family and the memories I still have of her. My deepest sympathies.

“ Dearest Wyrick Family,
Mattie was a great mother, and grandmother to Jamey she was the best mother-in-law I could have ever asked for. Her smile was so beautiful just as she was. She had a heart of gold. Love leaves cherished memories no one can steal.

My Deepest Sympathy, Sherry Westmoreland
