“ Why Not Me!

It was a cold wintry day in January 2006; Vivian got the call to have Mo come in as soon as possible to hear results from Mo's colonoscopy. And he told Vivian to come with him.

Dr. Hudes gave Mo the news; he had the big C, Cancer.

After the initial shock, Mo instead of saying WHY ME? Said Why not ME?

He said, I have lived hard, played hard, and why not me?

Mo went through Chemo, radiation and whatever else the doctors could throw at him for a cure. He even had hip surgery to help him be able to keep from falling.

The most wonderful thing though, is he never complained.

His feet became numb, he lost his taste, and finally he couldn't even get up. But, through it all he had the love of Vivian to get him through. He said he did not worry about himself, but worried if Vivian would be okay. He loved her dearly. He and Vivian held to each other so much these last days, and she will miss him terribly. But, she can have peace to know he is now with all his family, waiting for her to join him one day.

Then she can meet the ones she hasn't met yet, and be welcomed to enjoy in celebration of eternal happiness and peace.

Cancer is a terrible disease, Dana wanted so much to help cure her uncle.

She dedicated herself to him and Vivian all during his sickness. She loved Mo so much. She started Miles for Mo Relay, and raised money to help fight this deadly disease. Mo really did not want to go to the first relay. His sister died that day, and he really just wanted to stay home.

But, he didn't want to hurt Dana's feelings, cause she wanted to help him so much. He wasn't there no time at all, when he realized how great people can be. He went on the Survivor Walk, and he immediately fell in love with Relay for Life. The next year he looked forward to it. In fact, when it was time for the Survivor Walk he had Terry take him around a second time, he loved it so much.

Mo knew there was no cure for him, but he hoped that others could perhaps benefit from the money collected for research, and cure to this deadly disease. He was ready to go home, he knew the time was near. He had Vivian take him to church for communion just one week before he died. He became bedridden just a few days later, and within 5 days he was gone to heaven. He left knowing he had made it into Hospice away from the house, he knew Vivian was beside him, and he knew he was loved. He gave it up and met all his other family in GOD's house. Do not fret Vivian one day you will see him again, and you two can stroll through Heaven together hand in hand.

May GOD comfort you Vivian until you meet Mo again.##imported-begin##Joyce Davis##imported-end##

“ All I have to say is that I love Mo very much and I will never forget him. He is the only Uncle that I was truly close to. It will be my privilege and an honor to continue his Relay team in his memory, "Miles for Mo" will always be around. I will always have our precious Uncle Mo Mo in my heart. I miss him so but I find comfort in knowing that he is a picture of health now and he is looking down on all of us with his famous smile :) He is our guardian Angel!! I love you!!###imported-begin##Dana###imported-end##

“ Dear Vivian,
I just watched the video tribute to Mo. It's very beautiful and moving. You and Mo have been in our thoughts and prayers for a long time now. I'm sorry that our circumstances have prevented us from doing more than thinking of and praying for you during this journey you and Mo made together. Even though this journey is over and you will continue on without him, he will live on in your love and memories forever. How blessed you both were to have had your life together. We will continue to think of you and remember you in our prayers. If you ever get out our way, please come to see old neighbors.

“ Vivian,

Mo will truly be missed. I know that he did not have children of his own, but he was there with me at every event in my life just like a parent. He was with me at every prom, graduation, wedding and then the birth of my two kids that loved him so much. So I would say he was blessed with many children that loved him.##imported-begin##Jason & Melissa Mulkey##imported-end##

“ We love you Vivian and we will miss our "Mr. Mo" very much. His smile and laughter brought us such joy, he was always a pleasure to be around. Our kids will miss his enthusiasm to play with them, even when he wasn't feeling his best. He's such a great guy. You and Mo have blessed our lives. We're here for you and we love you so much!
