“ I want to extend my sincerest condolences to the Waters family, and special blessings and prayers for Jimmy, Linda, Aunt Elga & Janice. Reflecting on what a very fine lady Maxine truly was , I vividly recall how much fun she was to be around. There were so many wonderful Sunday dinners we all shared at Uncle Bug & Aunt Elga's. I recall all of us being on vacation in Panama City, and how Maxine laughed at the time Alton and I were trying to drive a paddle boat in opposite directions ...

You all have many wonderful memories of many, many years together to share and treasure that's worth more than gold, and be thankful to God for them.

Jimmy , you have truly cared for and honored your Mother and may God give you peace and comfort for always.

Very Best Regards, Jacqueline###imported-begin##JACQUELINE FOWLER ###imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are especially with Jimmy, Linda, Janice, & Elga at this time. I have known Maxine all of my life. She was great person and a fine lady... always wanting to laugh about something....no two people could have been a better match than Alton & Maxine.

May God strengthen you and the family though this difficult time.

Warmest Regards , Chick###imported-begin##VAUDELL FOWLER ###imported-end##

“ Maxine and Alton were always so good to me and Lawana. They took pictures for every occasion of mom and us. Those are precious memories. Maxine was a beautiful and very poised lady. She was always dressed pretty and I will always remember how tall and elegant she looked with her pointed toe, black, high-heeled shoes. I am relieved to know her pain is over and she and Alton are reunited forever. Love to all out cousins during this sad time.
