

Melany Sattler

June 26, 1973 - February 24, 2026

SATTLER – Melany Sattler, age 52, of Lilburn, Georgia, passed away on Tuesday, February 24, 2026. Two services will be held in her honor. A Catholic Funeral Mass will take place on Thursday, March 5, at 11:00 a.m. at Good Shepherd Catholic Church, 3740 Holtzclaw Road, Cumming, Georgia. A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, March 7, at 11:00 a.m. at the Athens Community Council on Aging, 135 Hoyt Street, Athens, Georgia. Melany was preceded in death by her father, Jack Bertrand Sattler. She is survived by her loving wife, Angela Bilodeau; her mother, Catherine Sattler; and her siblings and their families: sister Regina Kotkiewicz and brother-in-law Gary Kotkiewicz, with their children Nicholas Kotkiewicz and Victoria Dunsing; sister Michelle Kenney and brother-in-law Jason Kenney, with their children Megan Kenney, Erik Kenney, and great-niece Ellie; and brother Jason Sattler and sister-in-law Kristie Sattler, with their children Gavin Sattler and Braden Sattler. Melany found joy in the comforts of home, spending time with her beloved dog and two cats, Draper, Naji, and Pippa. She cherished time with friends, loved tropical vacations and road trips, and was an enthusiastic football fan—especially of the University of Georgia. Go Dawgs! A dedicated social worker, Melany devoted her career to serving the aging population, with a particular focus on dementia care. She was deeply passionate about education, advocacy, and compassionate care for individuals and families navigating the challenges of aging. Flowers can be sent to either service or you can make a donation in honor of Melany the Athens Community Center

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Melany’s passing. She was one of my earliest mentors in my social work career and taught me what it means to provide warm, person-centered, and compassionate care to those living with dementia. Her impact on our community was profound, and her absence will be felt by so many. My heartfelt condolences to her family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. ~Danelle Hubbard

“ Melany was spice and everything nice. She was one of my best friends in middle and high school. We did so much together. She always was upbeat and a joy to have as a best friend. To her family and wife, im so sorry she has passed. I wish she could have been here for many more years. She was and is a shining star. Rest sweet Melany.
