“ I grew up in Split Silk and Melba lived in Bay Creek Community. We met before we ever started school. There was a country store across the road from my house. Melba and her Dad came there for groceries. We got to know each other and I was visiting at her house for play dates and sometimes sleep overs. Her Dad was a big man and he always joked with me. Her Mother was a great cook and she also had a beauty shop in Monroe in Mill Town. Melba learned to style hair and I was her gunny pig. Her parents allowed Melba to take the car whenever she wanted. She'd pic me up and we would cruise around Loganville and Lawrenceville. There was always something going on in Lawrenceville. That is where she met James. It was LOVE at first sight for both of them. I believe they got married a month after we graduated. I have always felt blessed that James and Melba named their daughter after Melba and me. She has a wonderful family and she is a beautiful woman. I did not get to see Melba over the years as much as I would have liked. I wish I had visited more often. The only other thing I need to say is...Melba, I still Love you.
