“ I have known Melinda for many years. I knew her when she worked at Stalvey's as well as Kroger. Wherever she was, she always spoke to my dad and me. If my dad wasn't with me, she was always concerned that he was ok. She brightened all of our lives even when you knew she wasn't up to par. We loved her very much as a friendly Kroger Cashier and pray that you and yours will remember the beautiful memories. May God Bless You!##imported-begin##Becky Ison and Vic Ison##imported-end##

“ Such a shock when I found out today. Although we went to school together for years, we just reconnected recently. I still have your number you gave me just a few weeks ago--we had talked about you coming to church with us. You, my friend, brought me so much joy each time I came into Kroger. I so enjoyed talking to you. I can still remember all those times we spent the night together when we were in school. I will miss you. My prayers are with your family. Love you, Melinda.###imported-begin##Hope Middlebrooks Fletcher###imported-end##
