“ I have many memories of Melissa when I would visit the Wood family home in Snellville throughout the years. Seemingly always playing with her sister Cassie or chatting with us as we would visit in the kitchen. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

“ I remember when I first met you. We were both on our way to the Dr. office to check out our babies. You had just found out you were pregnant and you looked so beautiful. Just glowing and smiling ear to ear. I am sorry that we didn't get to know each other more. I know we could have been good friends. You are truly missed and loved. I'll be praying for your family.
