“ Mia will be so missed. The whole time I knew her to be a wonderfully compassionate and ambitious person. She lived each day to its fullest and she passed that onto those around her. She touched my daughter, Felicia, by showing her support and encouragement that she still carries with her. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Bruce. May God give your heart peace.##imported-begin##Carol Wrape##imported-end##

“ Dear Bruce,
We are so saddened to hear of the sudden loss of Mia. Please know we have often think of and speak of Mia and always with love and the deepest of respect.

Angela has wonderful memories of the four years she spent at Beaver Spring and of all the days she spent there learning from Mia.

There are no words to console you now but please remember that there are many people that Mia touched and that will always remember her.

Look up to the stars at night and the night sky will be brighter because there is a new star looking over you, the farm and all of us now. The new star's name is Mia.
