“ Mia , You were a Light in this world . You carried a message of Hope , Faith , and Strength to those around you . You always had a keen awareness of knowing when someone needed to be lifted up . Your radiant smile and silly laugh was your signature . You will be forever missed at our Grayson Kroger . I remember in our last huddle that I got to say something good about you . I said " Mia is as Beautiful on the inside as she is on the outside " . I will forever remember your compassion and I will always Love You Mia . I know that God will Bless your son and watch over him . I know that God will be with your family and I know that you are in Heaven and we will all meet again some day . Farewell precious Mia .
