“ I was shocked to hear of Michael's passing. we only knew each other a short period of time but he was a very easy guy to get to like very quickly. My thoughts and prayers are with his children as I know they were the light of his life. You are missed by many I am sure.

“ Michael taught me the car business in Dallas. It never bothered him to mentor a woman. He had great patience and needed me to learn. at 36, I got breast cancer and he was my support. I will miss him

“ My promise to you Michael....I will do as we discussed often, regarding Callie and Cody. This road will be a challenge, but with God directing my path, I will always do what's right and honorable for their benefit. You'll be with us in 3 weeks at Cody's high school graduation and will all be sure to crack a joke or two in honor of you. I know joking was one of you famous traits. As you watch over, show me a sign that everything will be okay. I love you big brother-I will miss the phone calls every few days. Now you have no worries because you made it bro!!!! Hugs to papa and grandma. Kisses to you-see you on the other side someday. Love you Michael!!!!

“ A tribute from your baby sister... You are missed more and more each day. I am still in disarray of your sudden departure and I've cried buckets of tears since that day. You were the least likely person that I would guessed would be moving on to eternity. The only thing that keeps me settled is truly knowing that you are with Jesus. I remember the day of your full water emersion baptism on April 15, 2012. Your smile and glowing eyes said it all.

“ Michael was a great guy who will be sorely missed. Apart from being a superb business manager, Michael was a good friend with a love for life and a greater love for his family whom he would always speak of (he was very proud of his kids).

Michael and I both love to laugh and joke around so we immediately liked each other from the start.

One of the funniest memories I have of Michael is when Jerry Haak, Luis and I pretended that one of our 'over-sized' closets was to be his office (windowless of course). We kept telling him about why it would be such a good office for him over all his objections. Michael kept his composure, but it was obvious how worked up he was getting (the expression on his face was priceless). We kept it up for about an hour until we busted out laughing.....Michael, of course, laughed out loud too, appreciating our prank.

We're all going to miss you Michael! God bless you buddy!

“ I have known Michael for several years, he was truly a professional. Michael talked about his kids all the time, he had a big heart and cared for everyone. I had a past customer call me this morning that gave Michael so much praise for being a great person, a great listener, and a caring person. Michael was a huge asset to our company and he will be greatly missed.

“ I will always remember Michael as the true professional he was. He was one of the best business managers in the RV industry. His magnetic personality attracted others to him. There was never a time when I visited with Michael that the conversation did not eventually turn towards him taking the opportunity to speak proudly about his children. He would light up and glow when he was describing them and what happened to be going on in their lives at the time. He was so proud of their accomplishments.

Michael will be greatly missed.

“ My Uncle Mike is one of the best man I've ever known. He always put his kids first and he knew the importance of family. I remember going to spend the summer with him and my cousins when I was about 12 yrs old. He made sure I had the best time. It was that summer that he took me and Callie to manicures and it was my first one ever. I still remember the little dolphins they put on my fingers. :) He will be greatly missed but I know he's in heaven right now so our family will all be together again one day. I love you Uncle Mike I promise to tell Jaxon about you, I know he would have loved his Uncle Mike so much.

“ Michael epitomized the word professional, he managed to be highly profitable while maintaining an even higher level of integrity. In his world everything had a place, and every task had a procedure, you could hand him a deal and never worry about it again. When he wasn't talking about work related topics, he was talking about his family. He was a very proud and loving father, son, and brother, his goals were focused around the future, and well being of his children. He had many great character traits, traits that most of us must work diligently to improve, appeared to be effortless for Michael. He was a good man and will be sorely missed.
