“ Michael and I pretty much grew up together and we've always had a special bond. More like my brother (and friend) than cousins. Some of my happiest childhood memories are of spending time with my Uncle Jim, Aunt Bonnie, Michael and then later -Dennis. I remember us 3 kids sleeping together and poor Michael had to "pat" Dennis's back until he went to sleep. But he never complained, just did as his mama ask him to do. But that was Michael - always lending a helping hand whenever he could. Not a selfish bone in his body. We spent MANY a night outside working in the dark on my various vehicles. I say we... he did all the work, I just hung out and kept him company. We grew apart over the years, but he was never far from my heart and I know only a phone call away. I love you Michael and will miss you beyond words. Your sis, Charlotte Ann p.s. Just thought of this - we used to ride mini bikes through the cow pasture behind his house. One time we stopped at a "salt lick" and we both bent down and took a lick!!! Right where the cows had already licked! Lawd - the things we did! LOL
