“ Since he was a favorite cousin of mine growing up I have so many memories. When my dad was in Korea, my mom, myself, Aunt Nellie, and Mike spent almost every single weekend together mostly at the Lawrenceville drive inn. Mike loved scaring us girls..... he'd go get the popcorn but wait until a scary moment to return and boy would we jump! I finally wised up and went with him 😊 then we'd scare our moms. He and his mom were such a major part of my life for the 16 months we lived here until dad came back and we moved to Texas. Memories that I will forever cherish.....RIP sweet cousin you were one of the best!

My cousin Mike was a great guy. We grew up playing together often. We played baseball together in little league with our Uncle Cecil as coach. Mike was a good catcher. He was good at whatever he tried. I will miss talking to him and just sitting and listening to his music. Rest In Peace Mike. You were loved and will be missed.
