“ So glad to have been a part of this wonderful man's life. He and Rita, Bobby and I, shared so many fun memories...the exquisite famous Strawberry coconut shrimp at the Boar's Head Restaurant in Panama City Beach when there was nothing there yet. Dancing in the surf to New York, New York, caught in the undertow and couldn't get out. Cruises together wearing Togas, dinner parties we would host at one another's houses, holidays spent together, Laughing and crying together, visits at the rehab places and giving Mike haircuts there and at the beach and then head out for a night of fun looking like his old spiffy self, ballgames at the park, trivia nights. Mike was always smile ready with a constant willingness to serve you... " Wait, let me get that for you Dear" He'll always be a wonderful friend and I look forward to the day Bobby, who I'm sure he's hanging out with Rita and I will be back to a young, happy, foursome again. I was humbled to help care for him and keep him in pea soup, Italian meat balls, and cooked his favorite foods while he was really sick, and to enjoy his joyous essencense right up till God called him home. Will honor him with taking care of his beloved Rita, prayers, and so many more great memories, because he is a great friend.

“ Uncle Michael was a big kid himself! He was always fun to be around and could always make us laugh. My favorite memory will always be driving, with all the kids, in his van at "the bumps".
