Brother Paul, it's been a good long while since we've spoken, about 12 years or so. Which shouldn't be. I befriended you thru Alex and we hung out together in our teen years. Having a blast and yes getting into our fair share of trouble. lol as I've grown older I make the mistake that our friends from our youth will always be around to say hello to. But that's not the case. No more hellos and no more goodbyes. Rest at Peace old friend. And may your next journey be a friendly and deserving one bud!

“ Brother Paul, it's been 12 long years since we've seen one another and that shouldn't have been. I first met you thru Alex and Dennis back in 1988. The greatest of teen years ever! Then thru out the late 80's and into the early 90's we hung out quite a bit. We had some hilarious party times together and also 1 very shameful argumental time together over something stupid. I held that regret for many years and then had my chance to apologize and squash that beef back in 2009. And here I sit with Covid and can't even come see you to say I'm sorry one last time. You see I've always looked at our gang of friends we grew up with as invincible and having the super power of living forever. Of course over the past several years the reality of it all is quite the opposite. And it's heart breaking to know that more hellos and last goodbyes are becoming less and less frequent and more and more forgotten and again it shouldn't be. Anyhow Brother I hope you now Rest Easy and Rest at Peace my friend.

“ It's been a long time since I've seen Paul, but we go way back to when I was in 6th grade! Lots of fun times hanging with our crew, lots of good memories. Him and my sister dated for like 5 years while I was in high school and after, so he was more like family. I'm sorry we didn't see much of him after that, but he was a good guy and may he Rest in Peace. Prayers to Paul's family and friends.
