“ I will always miss fishing with you and dad. It was one of my favorite memories and it always will be. I always looked forwards to it. I wish I could still go fish with you and play with the fish in the back of the boat like I used to. I also still have that stuffed animal that you gave me when I was a baby as well, it sits in my bed with me every night and I cuddle with it when I miss you. I want you to know that I like motorcycles now. I wish I could ride one with you. My dad said I got on yours and I didn't like it. I wish I did. I know it would have been a fun ride. Speaking of dad, he's doing ok as well, he still works at Grief. I wish you were there when I went to vist him yesterday. I hope you are doing well in heaven. I'll always miss you. Love, Mackinsey Woodall <3

“ *Thinking of you today...
I know you are at peace but, we are selfish folks here. I wish you were here to go to St. Andrews camping with us. We had our best vacation ever, with you guys at St. Andrews State Park. I know you are no longer in pain, or facing turmoil in your life, but you are missed more than words can say too. So go rest high on that mountain with Our Lord Jesus, in peace, until we meet again! We LOVE you Mike!*

“ Mike go rest high on that mountain you will be missed at the job you fought so hard I'm so glad we worked together you was a very nice guy who loved his family so very much you wanted to retire so bad but you wanted to make sure your family was taking care of first that's the kind of person you was. I use to love talking about camping with asking you questions about my frist camper because I didn't no anything about it but you did you taught me a lot on campers R.I.P you are at peace now !!!! You will be Missed
