“ *To DiAmbrose Family, Mike was a wonderful and very thoughtful person. We are very blessed to have had him be a part of our lives, that we will cherish forever. He brought joy to our whole family and "Mr. Mike" as Sierra, Matthew, and Elisha called him was admired by the kids and what he represented. We look forward to seeing him again in Heaven and am sure that he is bringing a smile up there to everyone around him. We will miss him greatly, but look forward to seeing him again soon. The Hill's###imported-begin##Jeff and Shannon

“ Sharon,

Is this Mike? Did I work for you? I am no longer hanging paper as I am disabled. Oh, my heart is with you at this time. If this is Mike I have fond memories of not only him but you and the children as well. He was such a kind person, and witty if I remember correctly. He was a tiredless workaholic. Always on the go. I am so sorry for his passing, but as a Christian he is well recieved by other love ones. His journey is not over. He (I am sure) will still watch over you and the children. The loves of his life. My payers are with you.

Love,
