“ Michel was loved by many. His love for his workers was shown by every lunch break we all loaded up in company trucks and headed out to the local "all you can eat buffet" so we all ate well. Michele all ways would make you smile on the hottest day of the year, because his heart was in the right place at all ways the right time. Remembering those hurricanes & tornado's we worked through with his brother and Dad, some days were long and hard, but Micheal (like his Dad) at the end of the day, he would all ways make you smile.

Michael my prayers go with you, perhaps one day we meet again, till then may God be with you. :-)
