“ I first met Mickie when we were both young teenagers. She was always so quiet and humble and had a sweet smile. I'm sending Many Hugs and Prayers to her Family, who I know she loved and cherished so, so much !
God Bless

“ Mickie, I have so many fond memories of our times together. Loved bowling with you, against you I guess you could say since we weren't on the same team. LOL And the many Super Bowl parties here at my house. Oh how we loved those sheets and whooped and hollered when someone in the room would win the BIG $25.00 each quarter. And I loved you, Pat and me going to lunches at different spots that we new we would love but our husbands most likely wouldn't. And John and Eddie used to take us to eat crab legs and after they ate, they just talked while you and I continued to pig out until we couldn't eat any more. Such fond memories of years past. You will be missed.... To Darren, Stephanie, Morgan and Justin....continued prayers to all of you.
