“ Mike, I will miss you so much. We had some good times growing up. You fell in love and married Mary. More good times began. Mary fit right in. I can remember all the family dinners we had and how much fun we all had. Your son Jeremy I know you are so proud of him. You are with momma and daddy. One day we all will meet again. I love you your little sister Becky##imported-begin##Becky Martin##imported-end##

“ September 02, 2010

I will miss you, little brother. In spite of seemingly unsurmountable health issues, you always were able to recover and you remained cheerful and friendly and always had a smile ready. I am comforted by knowing you are in the arms of the angels, with momma, daddy, and your father-in-law by your side, rejoicing at your reunion.

When I think of you, I remember the little boy with boundless energy, so much so, the bus driver nicknamed you "Wild Bill." I remember you singing the "Davy Crockett" song and you knew the words to all the many verses. I remember your wedding day and the big smile on your face as you and Mary said your vows. I remember you caught a huge black widow spider and put it in a jar (much to momma's horror.). I remember when you and I had a play spot under a big oak tree where we played endless hours and called it "our place."

To Mary - you are the best thing that ever happened to Mike. You stood by him and supported him for all these years, and you were a wonderful wife to Mike. We love you.

Jeremy - you will miss your dad but you have a lot of memories to get you through the bad times. Your children will certainly remember him with love and good times.

To all the Pruitt family, thank you for being such a good family to Mike. He loved all of you.##imported-begin##Wanda##imported-end##

“ Mike, we are going to miss you so much. Your cheerfulness, sweet personality, and love of family never wavered. I know you are at peace now and no longer suffering pain, and I know momma and daddy and C.W. were glad to meet you at Heaven's Gates. I love you. Rest in Peace, my brother.##imported-begin##Wanda and Donald Browning##imported-end##
