“ Oh my dear sweet Nannie...

You were always a shining light of happiness in my life. You taught me what true, unconditional love feels like. You always put others before yourself... humble would be an understatement to describe you.

I'm so very sorry I didn't visit you more often in the last few years... looking back now, of course that's the one thing I wish I could change. But I also know that you are rejoicing in Heaven right now & would tell me not to worry about a thing.

My heart is filled with joy thinking of you, Poppa, Uncle David and so many others reuniting with Jesus! The thought makes me smile ear to ear. :)

Thank you Nannie for teaching me how important family truly is... and for being the most wonderful grandmother anyone could wish for. I love you so much & will miss you immeasurably.

*Until we meet again,
Lorie*

“ Aunt Mildred was always so sweet and kind. My sister Pam, and brothers Rick and Roger and I were always so fascinated by our 5 D boy cousins. You know Aunt Mildred had to be a strong woman to raise 5 boys!

My father was Newman's brother Tifton and Uncle Newman always looked like my dad. That gave me a lot of comfort after daddy passed. I have a special place in my heart for my sweet Aunt Mildred and Uncle Newman.

My condolences to the 4 remaining D's and your families.

Much love,
Patti Bennett

“ When I met Mildred Bennett, we immediately became friends. She was so welcoming and endearing in such an honest way. One of the first things she did was show me all the boys baby photos and explain that she would have had a dozen more if her health had held up. I couldn't imagine raising 5 boys, much less wishing for more. But her love for everyone was contagious. She had many names, Mildred, Day, Mom, Nannie. I wasn't sure what to call her so I asked. She had already told me that Mrs. Bennett was too formal. It wasn't until I introduced her to my daughter that she said she hoped she would call her Nannie, and we decided that I would too. It all seemed so natural and she seemed so happy to have us both in the family. She's always been "Nannie" to me since then. I will always be grateful that she was in my life. As everyone who has ever known her knows, she was one of the most kind and generous people ever. She cooked for everyone all the time. She loved doing it. She felt her food could heal or fix almost everything. And for the most part, I think she was right. For the simple reason that she always cooked with and for love. Thank you Nannie! I will always love you.
