“ We are so sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs. Brady. I went to school with all of her children. I remember so vividly about when me and my twin sister, Nancy Still, would spend the night with Gwen when we were teenagers. Mrs. Brady was one of the best cooks in the world and would always cook us the best meal ever when we would come. She made this one cake that I remember and love so much till this day. It was a yellow cake with chocolate icing and it was the most delicious cake I have ever eaten. I have tried to make it and tried to find recipes that might be like it and there is just no way you can duplicate Mrs. Brady's cake. I talk about this delicious cake to everyone hoping that someone will know the recipe. I loved her so much as well as her precious husband, Jay, and all of the children. She will be missed greatly but now she is in heaven with her beloved husband, Jay, and her beloved daughter, Marie. What a rejoicing time they will have together.
