“ This was one of the sweetest women I've ever known. Many years have come and gone since I first met her, but she never changed with the years. Through any hardship she may have endured, she remained a Godly woman that loved her family. The Banks family will always consider her and her family as part of our extended family. We love you all.##imported-begin##Deb (Banks)##imported-end##

“ I remember her as a fun and giving grandmother. My son Brett was fortunate to be coached by Hiram, play along side Jared and have Mrs. Smith as a "team grandmother" because she always brought treats to the games for everyone. She enjoyed being at the games and practices and I for one thought she was an amazing person. My deepest sympathies to all the Smith family for your loss. You had a dear lady in your lives for a long time and that is a blessing.##imported-begin##Deborah Wiggins##imported-end##
