“ I am so sorry to hear about Montine she was the best Aunt anyone could ask for but she was more like a second mother to me. I will miss her and am as lost and so sad just like the rest of you. I love her as well as I do the rest of you. She will be missed so much but we all know she is with the lord now and we all feel better knowing shes in a better place. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.##imported-begin##Shelia Arnold Adair##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Ms Holley. My mom and dad really thought alot of your mother, we all did. She was our neighbor in Scottdale for a long time. A very good woman and mother, I know you all are going to miss her dearly.
God bless you all and our prayers are with you.

“ Dear Ginny and Tom,

We are so very sorry to learn of your Mom's passing this weekend. Mothers are so special forever and I know you have wonderful memories of her which you'll cherish always. What a blessing that you had so much wonderful time with your Mom over the past year and you and Tom took such good care of her and she knew you love her. We love you and are praying for God to give you the strength and comfort you'll need to get through his difficult time.

“ Sincere condolences to the family of Montine Virginia Holley. When we lose a loved one in death, we may become overwhelmed by grief. Jesus wept when his dear friend Lazarus died, therefore, we know Jesus will empathize with our sorrow. Yet, because you have confidence in the resurrection, your sorrow will not be unrelenting. As the Bible says, you will "not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope." (1 Thessalonians 4:13) Rather, you will draw close to Jehovah God in prayer, and the Bible promises that "he himself will sustain you." - Psalm 55:22.##imported-begin##Vivian Clay##imported-end##
