“ Ms. Brannon was my very first teacher at Children's House in Indianapolis. She was in my life since I was 4 yrs old. She was always an inspiration and always encouraged us as children to explore, appreciate the arts, respect others and always be respectful. If it weren't for her I wouldn't have become the individual I am today. I Love you and you will be missed. Becky###imported-begin##Rebecca Robinson###imported-end##

“ Mrs. Brannon played a very important role in my life when I attended The Children's House for 6-8th grade. Her no-nonsense style and tough love helped me become the person I am today. 30 years later, when my son attended The Children's House for middle school, Mrs. Brannon continued to help our family--even after she retired. When she visited the school after suffering a stroke, despite the fact that she could barely speak, she shared with me that she felt my son was exactly like me. Once again, she was right.

I will always remember how Mrs. Brannon caught me skipping ballet and not doing my Social Studies homework--and her novel punishments. Mrs. Brannon can rest in peace because I never skipped anything or failed to do my homework ever again. And I am just one of hundreds of children whose lives she touched.##imported-begin##Tracy Mishkin##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Brannon,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your beloved mother, grandmother.

There are no words to express what Mrs. Brannon means to me or the countless ways she touched my life. So much of who I am today was shaped by her and my time at the Children's House. I am so grateful that I had the honor and privilege not only to grow up knowing her and being taught by her, but to have known her and learned from her during my adult life as well. I felt a deep connection with her; she was like a grandmother to me so I feel so lucky.

Her legacy lives on in all of us and in The Children's House.

With love,
