It has been said that one's true character reveals itself in the way that person treats the elderly, children, and animals. By that measure, Ted Noe was as fine a man as you will find

“ Well here I go again, I just left this on Your Dad's page, Sorry, I just wanted to say the memories we have had as kids are ones we will never forget. Hurffville church, Cedar Lake behind your house. The many dinners and fun was always had. The Moore's and the Noe's always together. We won the roaring twenties dance in Pitman ,First place and we could always share our heartfelt secrets as young teenagers. Rest my sweet friend, sorry we never got in touch as our lives went in many different directions. Blessings sent to Your family and may God give them all strength through these times. Cathy Moore -Shinn -Doughty. and family.

“ Ted Noe Jr., Cantankerous, but kind, firm, but loving, hard working, but giving, these are but a few of my words that come to mind when thinking of him. Ted was good soul in a drill sergeants' disguise, you will be surely missed. God speed good soldier and rest at peace, we'll take it from here till we meet again.
