“ I am fortunate and blessed to have had this beautiful woman as my sister and only sibling. I have basked in her unconditional love my entire life. She was beautiful inside and out. Selfless, compassionate, honorable, kind and trustworthy were just some of the wonderful qualities she possessed. Her children and grandchildren meant the world to her; they were truly the lights of her life. She is living on in them, as they also possess many of her qualities.

My heart is so sad and heavy at not only losing her, but also for what her life became due to this terrible sickness. The only bright spot is that she is out of her misery and hopefully in a better place, united with our parents and other loved ones. Rest in peace dear sister - I love you for eternity and pray our souls meet again.
