“ I have a lot of great memories with you growing up. My favorite was when Daddy was sick and we told everyone to wear white and you showed up in Tye-Dye. That was so YOU. Always bringing laughter and color with you wherever you went. I know in heaven the coke machines will still be whispering your name, trying to talk you into having one. Some people will have no idea what im talking about, but a lot of us know that you always said that coca cola machine called your name and forced you to buy one. ♡♡ I have never looked at them the same since. You will be missed and loved forever.
